

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MELISSA CARMONA VALENZUELA,

Defendant.

4:19CR3048

ORDER

Defendant was previously released on conditions, but she is no longer welcome and cannot live in the home of third party custodian. Moreover, Defendant absconded after she was unable to return to the third party custodian's home. Based on the information of record, the court finds Defendant cannot be trusted to comply with the conditions of pretrial supervision and, as such, Defendant's release would pose a risk of flight.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
